

VIRGINIANS WON'T GO

Don't Care to Mix With Black-and-Tan at White House.

MANY LETTERS POUR IN

Members of Congress Deluged With Communications Denouncing Roosevelt for Inviting Negroes to the White House Reception.

Want the Mirrors from Monticello—Gossip.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31.—Notwithstanding the great row that has been made at the reception to the judiciary at the White House last week, there is an immense demand for extra invitations to the reception to the Senate and the House of Representatives, which takes place on Thursday night, February 1st.

Ever since the accounts began to appear in the papers describing the reception to the judiciary and the presence there of negroes, Senators and Congressmen from all over the South have been deluged with telegrams from their constituents, criticizing those Southerners who were there and making most plain their opinion of those who intend to go to the White House socially during the term of President Roosevelt. Notwithstanding all this, the probability is that there will be plenty of Southerners at the White House on Thursday night. Outside the Southern element, there will certainly be an unusual number of persons present who will go out of pure curiosity to see if there will be any dark-skinned brethren on hand.

Several of the Virginia delegation have received letters recently from their constituents quite in line with those coming from elsewhere in the South. Representative Flood has had a number of letters which have been emphatic and straight to the point. The Virginians are not making any great stir over the White House question, but it is extremely doubtful if any of them will be on hand Thursday night.

MONTICELLO MIRRORS

Appropos of the White House, Mr. Jefferson M. Levy, owner of Monticello, has received from the architect, under whose supervision the recent changes at the White House were made, an offer to purchase the two Louis XVI. mirrors, which now hang in the saloon at Monticello. They are very beautiful, and were presented to Jefferson when he was President, and for this reason Mr. McKim, the architect, wishes them for the remodeled East Room.

Mr. Levy wrote Mr. McKim that it would be impossible for him to part with these famous mirrors, but he would be very glad to allow him to make copies of them for the East Room. Mr. McKim probably is done.

One of the questions which will be discussed by the Congress of the Delegates of the American Revolution, which holds its annual session in Washington next month, that will be of interest to Virginians, is the plan to build a beautiful road from Charlottesville to Monticello.

When General Fitzhugh Lee was in Washington not long ago he called on Mr. Fairbanks, the president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and expressed his interest in this project. The plan which has been suggested is that each Daughter be assessed a nominal amount for a fund to be expended in the construction of this road. Mr. Fairbanks is keenly interested in the idea, but it has not been settled that the Daughters will take the matter up.

LIFE OF LEE

The Confederate Veterans' Association of Washington is particularly anxious to do all in its power to aid Colonel G. T. R. Henderson, of the British Staff College, in the work he is at present engaged in on the life of General Robert E. Lee. Accordingly, they have prepared a paper expressing the hope that all who have any data that would be of assistance to Colonel Henderson will place it in their hands.

Any one who desires to send any information, or who has any he thinks valuable, may write either to the Confederate Veterans' Association of Washington, D. C., addressing his communication to Confederate Veterans' Hall, corner of Eleventh and E Streets, Northwest, or to Colonel Robert W. Hunter, Alexandria, Va.

THE WINE MYSTERY

The Skull was Fractured and the Coffin Was New and Uninjured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STANTON, VA., January 31.—Dr. D. B. Bowman, of the city of Richmond, who, it is reported, examined the remains of Dr. Ernest Mosley, this county, when they were here some days ago from Dupuyer, Ont., where it was reported that Dr. Mosley had died from heart failure, and later reported by the railroad company that his body was in a railroad wreck, says, with reference to the injuries found on the body of Dr. Mosley when it arrived here: "In my opinion the injuries as found could have been produced after death in a wreck as claimed. In order to produce the crushed skull, the coffin and box would have to be crushed and broken all to pieces. Dr. Mosley seemed to have some doubt about the cuts being received in a wreck. If the casket and box were broken to pieces, whoever furnished a new one has never mentioned it as yet."

From Charles City County

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SHIRLEY, VA., January 31.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hewitt, of No. 205 East Franklin Street, Richmond, Va., are the guests of Mrs. T. M. Hewitt, of this county. Miss Rebecca Douthett, who has been spending some time with relatives in Danville, has returned to her home in this county.

Mr. Benjamin Ford, formerly a resident of this county, but now of Metairie, N. J., has been spending several days with friends in this neighborhood. He leaves for his Northern home to-day.
Mr. William M. Bell is spending the winter season on the stock farm of Mr. George Christman, near Harrisonburg, where he has charge of several promising herds.

HURRICANE BRANCH

Unique Petition Which is Going the Rounds at Suffolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., January 31.—The saying, "A prophet is not without honor," has a living illustration right here in the case of the Hurricane Branch. The blood and other achievements, has gained a reputation almost national in its scope. Despite the fact that Branch is known and feared by the criminal element all through Virginia, North Carolina and nearby States, there are those in this section who have tired of reading about his doings, notwithstanding many news stories would be incomplete without his name, because he figures in most every big crime that happens.

Now some of the business and professional men are seeking to have his name kept out of the newspapers. They are getting signatures to a petition addressed to a newspaper correspondent, and to which a number of names has been put, that reads this way:

"Suffolk, Va., Jan. 30, 1903.

"Mr. P. L. Pruden,

"Correspondent, Suffolk, Va.;

"Dear Sir,—We, the undersigned, long-suffering subscribers and readers of your news, respectfully request that you give us a much-needed rest from news of any kind pertaining to or containing the name of Hurricane Branch."

Then came the names of the signers. The paper has caused a lot of local interest and consequent comment.

STAUNTON FIRES

Large Barrel and Stove Factory of Bell and Hig. Burned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., January 31.—The large barrel and stove factory of Bell & Higgs just east of the city, including a well stock and postoffice, 10,000 staves, 1,000 barrels, and 100 sets of barrel heads, were totally destroyed by fire early this morning. Telegraph and telephone poles were burned, and all the wires on the railroad and vicinity were destroyed. It was with great difficulty that East End Chapel and Summerson's row were saved from the fire. A bunch of capacity of the factory was 20 barrels per day, and worked twenty-six hands, which are thrown out of work. The loss will very likely amount to $4,000, with about one-half that amount of insurance.

Fire at the residence of John B. Hoge yesterday did $30 worth of damage. How the fire originated is not known.

Fire in the store of M. E. Ford, in West End, yesterday, did about $75 damage.

TWO ARRESTS

C. B. Prosperi and P. Y. Johnson Taken in Charge by the Police.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., January 31.—Charles B. Prosperi, a cooper, Smith trade, and formerly employed at the navy yard in Washington, was arrested this afternoon by Detective Sergeant Reynolds for the Washington authorities to answer the charge of criminal assault. The other defendant, P. Y. Johnson, was arrested by the police force, was notified of the arrest, and a man will be sent for the prisoner to-morrow. Prosperi claims that he was drinking.

Porter Y. Johnson, of Norfolk, brother of the other defendant, was arrested at that time, and was taken to the station house. It is alleged that the crime was committed about a week ago, and that since that time, Johnson has been at work here. He has been employed in the ship yard and was arrested there by Detective Reynolds. He drew his pay. He will be held for the Norfolk authorities.

German at Ashland

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHLAND, VA., January 31.—A very brilliant German was danced last night in the life of the Ashland. It was given by the young master of the Ashland. Supper was served under the auspices of Mrs. Burr and Mrs. Mayre.

Chaperones present were Mrs. Sam Carter, Mrs. John Addison, Mrs. Burr, Mrs. L. Mayre, Mrs. Warwick, Mrs. Ruffin, and Mrs. Richardson.

The young ladies dancing were: Miss R. B. Wright, Miss A. D. Kerr, Miss M. Wright, Miss J. Welsiger, Miss M. Easter, Miss T. W. Wright, Miss A. L. Blincoe, Miss M. Bridges, Miss L. Childs and Miss Nixon.

The gentlemen present were as follows: Messrs. J. Cox, S. J. Dowell, J. T. Robinson, B. Davis, McNeal, Tysinger, R. Hunter, C. McCallen, M. Pace, H. D. Kerr, C. Green, Fossett, Dual, J. Addison, Sam Carter, H. Buchanan, L. Lancaster, R. Vaughan, P. Vaughan and Colonel L. T. W. Mayre.

Mrs. Hoge at Belona

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BIBLONA, VA., January 31.—Mr. Howard Hoge, accompanied by his wife, president of the W. C. T. U. of Virginia, has been spending several days at Oak Grove Academy, near Belona. He is a graceful and impressive speaker, and on several occasions addressed audiences in the Assembly Hall of the Academy in the interest of W. C. T. U. Last night a concert was given.

Collided with a Cow

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., January 31.—This afternoon, near Salisbury, N. C., a collision between a cow and a Suffolk and Carolina train resulted in the derailling of the locomotive and the wrecking of seven cars. The engineer and fireman jumped and were unhurt.

Gone to New York

Miss Milla Hutzler left last night for New York to attend the marriage of her sister, which will take place in a few days.

GRIDIRON BANQUET

Distinguished Men Feast with Newspaper Men.

QUIRKS AND MERRY JESTS

Great Amusement Caused by Hits Upon Great Personages and Comments Upon Recent Political Happenings.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 31.—The annual dinner of the Gridiron Club to-night was another record breaker in the way of unique entertainments, and the Washington correspondents who compose the famous organization again demonstrated that everything under the sun (or on the gridiron) was new, and there was a humorous side to all current events, and that toasts and roasts may be combined for an evening's entertainment.

The dining hall of the Arlington Hotel was never so handsomely decorated, for besides the flowers upon the tables and the palms and ferns about the room, a novel arrangement of electric lights produced a superb effect among the decorations.

Among the two hundred guests and members were ambassadors, Senators and Representatives, Governors, high officers of the army and navy, prominent men in the financial and business world, editors and proprietors of the great newspapers and scientists and men of letters.

CALENDAR MEN

The menu was a calendar, each month illustrated with the picture of a prominent guest, whose business or personal characteristic was indicated in a jingling rhyme.

The president of the club, Mr. William E. Curtis, afforded an opportunity for reverting to the part Mr. Curtis took in securing the attendance of Spanish grandees for the World's Fair at Chicago.

The ceremony of the Gridiron Club of 1902 mingled with twentieth century ideas and events, and made it a showy and laughable affair. One of the questions propounded to Columbus was: "What is a trust?" to which he replied: "A bunch of money surrounded by water."

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, one of the guests of the club, was made the subject of quite the best burlesque of the evening.

The Agricultural Department, in making with borax as a preservative, afforded another vehicle to give a number of prominent guests a gridironing. It was charged that Dr. Wiley was conducting an experiment on the digestion of two men who were club members, and that they were being used as a "buckshot" as an adjunct to Mr. Morgan's office. The burlesque concluded with a song dedicated to Mr. Morgan.

The burlesque concluded with a song dedicated to Mr. Morgan.

The experimental work of Dr. Wiley, of the Agricultural Department, in making with borax as a preservative, afforded another vehicle to give a number of prominent guests a gridironing. It was charged that Dr. Wiley was conducting an experiment on the digestion of two men who were club members, and that they were being used as a "buckshot" as an adjunct to Mr. Morgan's office. The burlesque concluded with a song dedicated to Mr. Morgan.
